This property is currently rented out, but the owner wants to sell them with the current contract and these contracts ALL have insurances to guarantee the income! After the rental contracts have finished you can do what you want with the property, freehold, it is your property, the only difference now is that you buy the property with the current rental contract and we have to respect that agreement and the owner wants to sell due to own circumstances. the current contract started May 2023 and finishes in May 2030, this means that an income of 875 Euros a month is guarenteed up to May 2030.
