Beachfront Investment Opportunity in Estepona – Two Apartments Combined This exceptional 140 m² beachfront apartment in the sought-after Costa Galera area of Estepona offers a unique opportunity for both investors and those looking for a second home on the Costa del Sol. Formed by combining two separate apartments, the property provides excellent flexibility, as each apartment can be used together as one spacious home or rented independently. Together, the property offers two bedrooms and two bathrooms, with each apartment featuring one bedroom and one bathroom. Both apartments have their own tourist licence and community approval for holiday rentals, making this an excellent investment with strong rental potential. One of the standouts...
